Dear . . .

Day 107

Dear diary

For some reason has Niklas been able to call me every day since the UFO's arrive, maybe even the leaders of the military can see it is a good idea to keep the military wife's calm and that way keep the public more calm as people are slowly going nuts over bad sleep and no reaction from the aliens. I do not mind them, they reminds me of the old hippies you learned about in school. I wonder how many of them are smoking some weed this moment. The only problems I have today is that for some reason the phone line to Niklas military installation suddenly stopped working and those annoying shooting stars appeared again, but without sound so at least I can sleep in peace. I guess I will try to sleep now so the shooting stars do not get a chance to annoy me.

Good night diary.
